

Jas Boothe

Expertise

- Leadership
- Diversity
- Women in Business
- Veteran Issues
- Entrepreneurship
- Resilience

FEATURED IN:

MilitaryTimes

People

The Washington
Post

BIO

Major Jas Boothe is a Chicago Native, Disabled Army Veteran, Cancer Survivor, Speaker, Coach and Trainer who gave over 17 years of service to this great nation.

Jas has spoken to a wide variety of organizations and groups including Defense & Veteran Organizations, Corporate teams and groups, Women's Groups & Conferences, Colleges, Homeless Advocacy & Support Groups and Cancer Survivor Groups.

Jas Boothe is the President and Founder of Final Salute Inc, providing homeless women Veterans with safe and suitable housing.

She founded Final Salute Inc due to her life being torn apart by Hurricane Katrina, homelessness and cancer in 2005. Jas was a single mother in the Army Reserves who was headed to Iraq. Due to her efforts and tireless advocacy, Final Salute Inc has raised over 3 million dollars, supported over 3600 women Veterans and children and provided over 12,000 days of housing since 2011.

GOT YOUR

Storyteller

Jas has regular appearances on national media and here are a few of the awards and recognitions Jas has received for her leadership and community impact: Oprah Winfrey and Toyota Standing Ovation, People Magazine Hero Among Us, CNN Hero, America Red Cross Tiffany Circle - Distinguished Woman Warrior Award, Redbook Magazine - We Learn From Her, Department of Defense Spirit of Hope Award, American Veteran's Center - Lillian K. Keil Award for Women's Contributions to the Military, Unstoppable Mom - Live with Kelly and Michael, All You Magazine - Be Inspired, YWCA Woman of Distinction, Marie Claire Magazine - America's Forgotten Heroes and the list goes on!

Jas is also featured in the 2017 documentary "Served Like a Girl", produced by Lysa Heslov, which follows several American women who were wounded in action and are now transitioning from soldier to civilian after serving their country in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Boothe holds dual MAs in Human Resource Management and Management and Leadership from Webster University.

Speaking Topics Include:

IF IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP, YOU'RE NOT DOING SOMETHING RIGHT

Keynote or Workshop

Loneliness is not a leadership or positional issue, it is a personality issue. Jas teaches the importance of connecting, attracting and influencing as the key factors to successful and sustained leadership.

YOU HAVE A DREAM, NOW WHAT?

Keynote or Workshop

Let's be real...the dream is free but the journey isn't. Jas teaches current and inspiring entrepreneurs the true cost of dreaming and how storytelling is the most vital tool in bringing dreams to life.

THE SOLDIER'S CREED

Keynote

Jas delivers an engaging keynote on how the Warrior Ethos shaped her as a military leader and was the key to success as a veteran advocate.

Testimonial:

Jaspen Boothe was the guest speaker for the Veterans Day Celebration at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. She was incredible! Every year we invite great speakers to come and share their story. Well, this year we had a speaker that not only shared her story but connected with the audience in a way that I had not witnessed previously. It was a pleasure to meet Jas and I hope we can work together on other initiatives in the future.

Tania L. Allen EPA Veterans Employment Program Manager Office of Human Resources, Human Capital Management Division

Link to full speaker bio:

http://www.womenveteransspeakers.com/team_member/jas-boothe/

To book, please contact Linda Maloney via lindamaloney@womenveteransspeakers.com