

NPCA is proud to support the Association for the Study of African American Life and History's 104th Annual Meeting. Please be sure to attend our Wednesday, October 2nd opening plenary session:

A People Moving:

How the National Park Service and Preservationists
Tell the Story of Black Migrations

Featuring:

John W. Franklin, National Museum of African American History and Culture, Smithsonian Institution (retired).

Brent Leggs, Executive Director of the African American Cultural Heritage Action Fund of the Trust for Historic Preservation.

Stephanie Deutsch, Author of the book "You Need a Schoolhouse: Booker T. Washington, Julius Rosenwald and the Building of Schools for the Segregated South."

Enimini Ekong, Superintendent of Nicodemus National Historic Site (KS)

Deanda Johnson, Midwest Regional Manager of the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom Program (NPS)

Ajena Rogers, Supervisory Park Ranger at Maggie Walker National Historic Site (VA)

Moderator: Alan Spears, Cultural Resources Director – National Parks Conservation Association

Greeter: Madeleine Starkey, Senior Executive Assistant – National Parks Conservation Association

From 4:30 to 6:30pm in Ballroom C1 – Convention Center, 1st Floor

100 YEARS
— NPCA.ORG —