Finding Our Roots in African American History

A Conversation with Henry Louis Gates and Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham

Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham

Acclaimed for his scholarship, his documentary films about African, Afro-Latin, and African American History, and his popular television series, "Finding Your Roots," Henry Louis Gates, Jr., has brought fascinating African American family stories to the wider public. The Black History Month Festival in 2021 is proud to feature a conversation between ASALH's national president Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham and Henry Louis Gates, Jr., who will share his thoughts and motivations in popularizing Black History through the heritage of African American families and communities and their search for roots. Joe Madison, legendary voice in radio, and a recognized human and civil rights activist will serve as the host for this event. Reverend Lamar will offer the traditional invocation on behalf of the new Festival.
