MEDIA ADVISORY: Dr. Charlene Dukes to Speak in place of Dr. Bernice King

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The special branch program titled “In the Spotlight: Growing Up in a Single-Family Home” that was planned to feature Dr. Bernice King, daughter of Martin Luther King Jr. and Coretta Scott King, presented by ASALH’s Prince George’s County Truth Branch, the National Park Service and the Cultural Education Experience Ministry has been changed.

The new event will take place February 28th at 12:00 pm - 2:00 pm EST and will feature Dr. Charlene Dukes, speaking on the Black Family and Education. This event is brought to you by Prince George’s County Truth Branch and Maple Springs Baptist Church Cultural Education Experience Ministry (CEEM) will host this joint ASALH Branch program on the Black Family.

The virtual festival, which will be celebrated throughout the month of February, recognizes the central role of African Americans in history and will be broadcast on our YouTube channel, ASALH TV.
