

Please Join
Middle Peninsula African-American Genealogical and Historical Society

for the

Stingray Point Contraband Historical Marker Dedication

Recognizing the brave acts of six enslaved men who self-emancipated on July 15, 1861, by hiding in the Stingray Point Lighthouse, turning themselves in to the United States Navy, and later enlisting in the Navy as Contrabands of War

Detail of a Civil War sailor in "The Spirit of Freedom," a sculpture at the African American Civil War Memorial, Washington, D.C.

July 17, 2021 | 11:00 A.M.

17147 General Puller Highway
Deltaville, Virginia 23043

(In front of the Deltaville Community Association)

THIS EVENT WILL ALSO BE STREAMED ON FACEBOOK LIVE
www.facebook.com/mpaaghs

Email mpaaghs.va@gmail.com for further information