Join the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH) in the 106th year of the Founders' of Black History Month. (<https://asalh.org/members/join/>) As a member of ASALH, you will join in the celebration of the 2021 Annual Black History Theme: The Black Family: Representation, Identity, and Diversity. Encourage your family, friends and colleagues to engage in the family research activities found on ASALH's website in support of our founder, Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson's mission to research and document family history. (Click link) <https://asalh.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/Family-Activity-Instructions-2019-012719.pdf> Your ASALH membership connects you to strategic efforts to impart the truth and bring unity through the knowledge of our shared history.

2021 is a year of significant anniversaries in the life of ASALH as well. As we celebrate the centennial of Dr. Woodson's founding of the Associated Publishers (now ASALH Press), we also celebrate Dr. Woodson's 1921 initial writing of the manuscript [The Case of the Negro] that was later published as Carter G. Woodson's Appeal. Promote readings and discussions of this lesser known work by Dr. Woodson as he challenged unsubstantiated notions of his people by historians of the day (1921). Now in paperback, click this link to purchase your copy. Publications - ASALH - The Founders of Black History Month

A key benefit of your membership is access to all digital copies of the Journal of Negro History (now Journal of African American History) since its founding and publication in 1916. Your membership with ASALH also provides a bi-annual subscription to the Black History Bulletin and discounts to the Annual Meeting and Conference. Visit www.asalh.org to view the conference schedule.

We look forward to your commitment to join ASALH between Founders' Day, September 9th and October 2nd [the day ASALH was incorporated in the District of Columbia] in celebration of this year's annual Black History Theme as the human family. Thank you in advance for your support in the continuation of the Woodson Legacy as a member of ASALH.

Sincerely,
