

JANET SIMS-WOOD

THE DOROTHY PORTER WESLEY AWARD

AWARD PRESENTED BY INFORMATION PROFESSIONALS OF ASALH

Janet Sims-Wood was the Assistant Chief Librarian for Reference/Reader Services at the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center (MSRC), Howard University, Washington, D.C. She has taught at the University of Maryland and has served as a children's librarian with the D.C. Public Library System, and currently works part-time for the Prince George's (MD) Community College Library as an Associate Professor/Adjunct Faculty Librarian. Dr. Sims-Wood is a founding Associate Editor of SAGE: A Scholarly Journal on Black Women. She served on the editorial boards of the online Black history journal, HUArchivesNet. She served nine years she served as National Vice President and Chair of the Membership Committee. She also served as President of the Washington, D. C. based Bethel Dukes Branch, ASALH. Dr. Sims-Wood is a Life Member of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History and the Association of Black Women Historians.