=====

- Annual Workplan
 - Carter G. Woodson House National Historic Site - Construction Status
 - Exhibition Designers are Howard and Rivas
 - Ms. Barbara Spencer Dunn, Dr. Evelyn Higginbotham and Dr. Bettye Gardner were involved in the exhibition process.
 - Carter G. Woodson Home National Historic Site Preview at ASALH Conference

- A session that will be held Friday Sept 30 – moderated by NPS’s Michael Chambers and the panelists are Dr. W. Marvin Dulaney; Dr. Evelyn Higginbotham and NPS’s Vince Vaise.
 - a video 3-D scan of the Woodson House. This presentation will provide an overlay so that you can see what to expect when you come.
- Woodson Birthday Celebration
- Historical Student Scholars
- Kiamsha worked with students to do oral histories and develop student docents for the Woodson and Bethune homes as part of the Historical Scholars program funded by the National Park Foundation on behalf of the National Park Service in partnership with ASALH.
 - A contingency of 31 (21 youth; 4 Dunbar and three Kiamsha Chaperones; three NPS representatives) completed a summer field trip to Montgomery, Atlanta, Birmingham and Selma. ASALH Historians met the youth at each location to further enhance the historical value of the field trip. A trailer to depict the overall program is being produced by an NPS representative and will be premiered at the ASALH Conference in Montgomery.
 - Part 2 – Student docents for the Woodson and Bethune Historic Sites is a goal of the project as a benefit to NACE.
 - Looking at the possibility of creating internship opportunities. Right now, it is not formally built into the program.
- CAWO Ambassadors Program
 - The plan is to develop a cadre of people who are committed to providing a rich visitor experience for the Woodson Home. Could be branch members, Woodsonites. The commitment would be 1 Saturday out of the month.
 - Digital product that ensures that the ambassadors would be trained up in Woodson (NAI/Eppley Institute).
- Quilting Douglass - The National Park Service, in collaboration with its partners NMAAHC and ASALH proudly co-present Quilting Douglass: From Slavery to Emancipation - the artist Bisa Butler’s The Storm, The Whirlwind, and the Earthquake, a life-size scale fiber portrait of Frederick Douglass, our esteemed panel will explore Douglass using this artwork as a prism for better understanding his life and enduring legacy. Michael L. Chambers, II will moderate a panel conversation featuring Bisa Butler, Tuliza Fleming, Delphine Gross and Vince Vaise.
- CAWO Grand Re-Opening The Ribbon cutting will now happen closer to August 2023
 - Looking to support NPF on how to support this with a Project Manager and funding for the actual Grand Opening (Feb 26 or 27, 2023). Could rub against the Annual BHM Luncheon.
 - Planning for a virtual preview in February 2023 and an in-person ribbon cutting in August 2023.
 - We are planning tours of the Mary Mcleod Bethune Council House National Historic, Frederick Douglass National Historic Site and a potential event at the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture.
 - These interpretive tours were a collaboration between ASALH and NPS involving Barbara Spencer Dunn, Dr. Bettye Gardner and Vince Vaise.

- Planning for Shaw walking tours
- ASALH and NPS are continuing to develop their partnership to help find funding to support the program events in 2023.
