

www.asalh.org

NPS/ASALH Collaboration Opportunities Available for Members

ASALH receives Task Agreement inquiries from both the National Park Service and the CESU (Cooperative Ecosystem Studies Unit). Upon each request, we seek historians to serve as Principal Investigators. If you are interested in applying for such opportunities in the future, stay tuned to ASALH's website at www.asalh.org. These opportunities are provided to ASALH members only. You can join ASALH by logging in to www.asalh.org at anytime. Questions about these opportunities should be addressed to asalh@nps.org, Kay Phillips, ASALH's Project Manager.

ASALH is currently seeking PIs for the following projects in collaboration with the NPS:

- Historic Resource Study of Civil War and Reconstruction on African Americans at Monocacy Junction, Maryland
- Request for Proposals – ASALH – The Founders of Black History Month
- Historic Resource Study Addendum for African American History of First State National Historical Park, Delaware
- Request for Proposals – ASALH – The Founders of Black History Month
- Scholar/Consultant for Research, Technical Assistance and Education in African American Civil Rights, Washington, DC
- Request for Proposals – ASALH – The Founders of Black History Month
- Booker T. Washington National Monument National Register Nomination Update, Virginia
- Request for Proposals – ASALH – The Founders of Black History Month

Join us at ASALH's Annual Conference and Meeting on Thursday, September 29th through Saturday, October 1, 2022, at the Renaissance Montgomery Hotel & Spa at the Convention Center, 201 Tallapoosa Street, Montgomery, AL 36104.

Association for the Study of African American Life and History, Inc. | www.asalh.org

