

October 20, 2022

Executive Council Colleagues,

Planning for the 2023 Black History Month Festival, "Black Resistance," is proceeding at a good pace! This 3rd annual event is on track to become the largest and most diverse. The festival committee thanks the Executive Council (EC) for its steadfast support of this evolving and exciting new feature in ASALH's programming and financial portfolio.

This is the last reminder for EC members who intend to coordinate and host a program during the 2023 festival to please contact the festival co-chairs by October 31, 2022:

Gladys Gary Vaughn (301-717-1771, mychinadoll@comcast.net) or Sharita Jacobs Thompson (301-938-9973, slt7207@yahoo.com). The festival calendar is filling up fast!

This is the last call.

Regards,
Gladys Gary Vaughn and Sharita Jacobs Thompson - Festival Co-Chairs

Cc: Incoming Executive Council Members