

Sankofa Lunch & Learn Day

Saturday September 23, 2023

A special day to introduce many Florida educators to ASALH at the 108th Annual Meeting and Conference
Hyatt Regency Jacksonville Riverfront

$150.00 per person (all funds sent to National) pays for:

- *Conference panels attendance for one day (10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. sessions on Saturday only)
- *Attendance at Saturday Conference Luncheon and Plenary at hotel
- *One year National ASALH membership & Journal

Other Florida Educators' Benefits

- *Information from State of Florida Department of Education officials (pending an invitation from ASALH for the DOE to participate on 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. panels and DOE's acceptance) regarding changes in state requirements in the teaching of African and African American history in Florida
- *Networking opportunities with ASALH members from various Florida school districts and from various states
- *Certificate of completion of ASALH Lunch & Learn Day

ASALH Benefits

- *New members' National ASALH dues and participation (2023 ASALH Florida Coalition Goal is 200 new ASALH members in Florida by December 2023)
- *Potential of many new local ASALH memberships for Florida's six branches
- *Academic collaboration possibilities on Africana Studies topics in the Journal of African American History and in the Black History Bulletin

*We have a letter of support from Dr. Marvin Dulaney – Thank you!

- We need an ASALH - designed flyer to send to educators and potential sponsors around the state to recruit them to attend support financially the 108th ASALH National Meeting and Conference
- *Financial sponsorship will help fund $150.00 registration fees, bus transportation to and from Jacksonville (branches will coordinate transportation) and other ASALH expenses for conference
