

2023 BLACK HISTORY THEME: BLACK RESISTANCE

108TH ANNUAL MEETING AND CONFERENCE | JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA | SEPTEMBER 20 - 24, 2023

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

African Americans have resisted historic and ongoing oppression, in all forms, especially the racial terrorism of lynching, racial pogroms, and police killings since our arrival upon these shores. These efforts have been to advocate for a dignified self-determined life in a just democratic society in the United States and beyond the United States political jurisdiction. Proposals should be detailed, comprehensive, and descriptive that outline the theme, scope, and aim of session. Details on each can be found on the ASALH website at asalh.org/conference/call-for-proposals/

CALL FOR POSTERS

The Poster Committee invites submissions for posters that address the conference theme, "Black Resistance." Proposals that address the theme are preferred, however, any timely subject of interest to African American history will be considered. We encourage proposals from scholars working across a variety of temporal, geographical, thematic, and topical areas in Black history, life and culture. Submissions are welcome from all ASALH members, especially from ASALH Branches, high school, undergraduate and graduate students, and individuals who are recent graduates.
