

Community in Conversation: Legacy of Slavery in Savannah Community Partner
Itinerary

Kick-Off: Thursday, October 12, 2023

6:00pm to 8:00pm

Kick-off at Savannah State University with a performance by the Powerhouse of the South, Savannah State University Marching Band! Information about the event located here.

This event is optional attendance

Panel Discussions: Friday, October 13, 2023

Location: Savannah State University, Howard Jordan Building, Mary C. Torian Auditorium; 3219 College St., Savannah, GA, 31404

10:00am to 10:15am

Welcome and Opening Remarks

SSU Faculty Member, Dr. Melissa Cooper, and Dr. Talitha LeFlouria

10:15am to 11:00am

Panel I: Rising Tides: Black Education in the South

Panelists: Jelani Favors and Dr. Hilary Green

11:00am to 12:00pm

Panel II: Activism in the Face of Violence

Panelists: Dr. Julie Buckner Armstrong, Dr. Mia Bay, and Michele Johnson

12:00pm to 1:30pm

Break for Lunch

1:30pm to 3:00pm

Panel III: Memory, Slavery, and its Afterlives

Panelists: Fath Davis Ruffins, Dr. Anne Bailey, and Dr. Jamil Drake

3:00pm to 4:00pm

Panel IV: Losing Ground: Land Ownership in the Lowcountry

Panelists: Dr. Felicia Jamison and Dr. Andrew Kahl

4:00pm to 4:30pm

Closing Remarks

Dr. Melissa Cooper and Dr. Talitha LeFlouria

This event is optional attendance

Free Family Day: Saturday, October 14, 2023

Location: Jepson Center for the Arts, 207 W. York St., Savannah, GA, 31401

10:00am to 5:00pm

Telfair Museums will hold a free community celebration across all 3 sites (Jepson Center, Telfair Academy, Owens-Thomas House & Slave Quarters) in celebration of the conclusion of the project. Festivities will include food, performances, tours, and art activities for all ages. Information about the event located here.

9:00am-10:00am: Check-In

This event is optional attendance