

Program Cluster Report
Aaisha Haykal, VP for Programs
Submitted Feb 12, 2024

Awards Committee (see separate report)

Academic Program Committee (see separate report)

Woodson Home

Black History Month Festival

Woodson Home

- The home opening has had delays due to construction, now fall 2024
- The exhibit design and install cannot happen until the construction is completed
- Potential link to Woodson birthday in December with celebrations
- NPS/Woodson Home Committee Session at the 2024 Conference will talk about ASALH, Woodson, and the Arts. Vince is working on the abstract
- Committee has been meeting with Vince Vaise of NPS about work plan and Michelle Jarvis, Exhibit Project Manager, about videos and scripts

Black History Month Festival

- Virtual
 - Opening virtual event was held on February 1st on ASALH TV with a good turn out online
 - Continuing to stream events on ASALH TV
 - Marketing team has been promoting events on social
 - Marquee event-Feb. 17th at 2pm a conversation with Julian Breece, a sponsor and luncheon attendee benefit.
- Luncheon
 - We have added as moderator for the luncheon discussion, Tiffany Cross, American television personality, political analyst, and author.
 - We are having author book signing, vendors, NPS table, ASALH store table, and USPS table
 - PBS Frontline partnership is still in development
 - Tickets are still available for purchase
- A comprehensive report will be given during the June EC meeting(s)