Current Employer:

Central Connecticut State University

Professional Background:

History PhD in 2023 from University of Massachusetts Amherst

Previous Service to ASALH:

My service to ASALH include a term as Executive Council Student Member.

Additionally, I have served as vice -chair of the Awards Committee. Also, I have served as session panelist and session chair at ASALH annual conferences.

What I Hope to Accomplish as an Executive Council Member of ASALH:

I hope to bring the needs and amplify the voices of junior scholars to ASALH.
Additionally, assist with recruiting undergraduate and graduate students to become involved with ASALH. Continue the work of ASALH to educate others of accomplishments by people of the African diaspora.

ASALH MISSION

To promote, research, preserve, interpret and disseminate information about Black life, history and culture to the global community.
