John Ashley Class of 2027

Current Employer:

Federal government, U.S. copyright office

Professional Background:

- Research Associate, U.S. Conference of Mayors.
- Adjunct undergraduate Teaching Economics, Political Science, Legal History.
- Adjunct Professor of Law.
- History of successful fundraising for nonprofits.
- History of successfully serving nonprofit tutoring and mentoring organizations.
- Currently, seeking certification as Parliamentarian.

Major Accomplishments:

Lifetime ASALH member. Member Bethel Dukes ASALH Branch. Former ECouncil member, with some highlights: attended and participated in all Annual Conferences and ECouncil meetings; served on several committees; donated monthly rentals for ASALH Headquarters; annually, donated Luncheon tickets for local HBCU students and faculty; sponsored donations to five (5) HBCUs for students and faculty to attend Annual Conferences; annually, recruited bulk of paid advertisements for Luncheon's Program booklet.

Previous Service to ASALH:

See "Major Accomplishment" above. In addition: joined a Branch and then worked to grow and develop it, which benefitted ASALH because many of the local volunteers in Headquarters throughout the year and during February's Luncheon activities have Branch members or associated with Branch's Institutional members.

ASALH MISSION

To promote, research, preserve, interpret and disseminate information about Black life, history and culture to the global community.
