Randall Webber Class of 2027

Current Employer:

Wayside Christian Mission

Professional Background:

Baptist minister with a long career serving Louisville's homeless. Served as board chair/president of four 501(c)(3) organizations at different times. Development director at Wayside Christian Mission for 21 years with substantial experience in grant writing/management/accounting. Successfully passed all audits so far by federal funding agencies.

Major Accomplishments:

Professional: Helped four new 501(c)(3) organizations establish themselves and developed policies/procedures conducive to orderly function and regulatory compliance. Academic: Most recent publication is an examination of some US history vignettes through the lens of the African American funeral sermon.

Previous Service to ASALH:

Service to the study of African American history is described above and in the attached cv. Service to ASALH as an organization is in the future, and hopefully beneficial to the organization.

What I Hope to Accomplish as an Executive Council Member of ASALH:

I joined very recently and was reluctant to take much of a role until I read the president's welcome letter. This email, which explained the president's perspective on some board-level conflicts, made me feel at home, as though I were in a stereotypical

ASALH MISSION

To promote, research, preserve, interpret and disseminate information about Black life, history and culture to the global community.

Baptist business meeting. If the executive committee, membership at large, or whoever makes the decision chooses me to serve, I will bring a fresh perspective informed by substantial 501(c)(3) management experience and not inhibited by previous participation in the issues identified in the email. In order to contextualize this perspective, the executive committee will need to have other members who can provide more of an institutional memory. I wish to be clear that my perspective will be specific and partial. I hope it will also be fresh, non-judgmental, and productive.
