Randall Webber Class of 2028

Current Employer:

Wayside Christian Mission

Professional Background:

Baptist minister with a long career serving Louisville's homeless. Served as board chair/president of four 501(c)(3) organizations at different times. Development director at Wayside Christian Mission for 21 years with substantial experience in grant writing/management/accounting. Successfully passed all audits so far by federal funding agencies.

Major Accomplishments:

Professional: Helped four new 501(c)(3) organizations establish themselves and developed policies/procedures conducive to orderly function and regulatory compliance. Academic: Most recent publication is an examination of some US history vignettes through the lens of the African American funeral sermon.

Previous Service to ASALH:

1. Panelist at 2024 annual conference and will propose similar involvement in 2025. 2. Efforts to help the Louisville branch define its role more clearly, undertake some activities relevant to its mission, and complete its annual report accurately.

What I Hope to Accomplish as an Executive Council Member of ASALH:

1. Assist the financial staff and relevant executive council members with grant management, regulatory compliance, and audit preparation. 2. Listen more than I speak

ASALH MISSION

To promote, research, preserve, interpret and disseminate information about Black life, history and culture to the global community.
